Scotland's – Western Isles

MACBRAYNES SUMMER SAILINGS 1971

*F*OR those who find a time-table irresistible as a piece of reading matter, the ships, ferries, day-trips, shown in the following pages, will prove more than usually fascinating. You can plan your own tour, afoot, on bike or in the family car, or you can arrange a caravan holiday. The permutations on land and sea between mainland and islands offer you scope unlikely to be equalled anywhere, for what other coastline is so indented by sea lochs, or so prolific of islands? What other country can offer such scenery still uncommercialised, scenery with so much historical significance, so varied and yet so individual? Nowhere else do the peat burns rush through bracken glens, the Western sunsets colour the high mountains or the Atlantic surf break on lovelier islands.

*Mull Car Ferry R.M.S. Columba at Oban.
Loch Coruisk and The Cuillins-Skye.
R.M.S. King George V arriving Fort William.
Stornoway Harbour.*

ORGANISED PARTIES

Special reduced fares are available by steamer for organisations travelling to camps, sports meetings and other recognised events. Special reduced fares are also applicable on certain day tours.

The fares will be quoted and tickets, which must be purchased in advance, are obtainable from:—

DAVID MACBRAYNE LIMITED, TRAVEL CENTRE
302 BUCHANAN STREET, GLASGOW, C.2

ABRIDGED CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

For fully detailed Conditions of Carriage see back of Sailing Bills.

DAVID MACBRAYNE LIMITED will not be responsible for any loss of life, injury, damage, loss or delay wheresoever or whensoever occurring to passengers or their luggage—personal, labelled or otherwise—goods, or property, or live stock, either on board the ships, ferries and vehicles (subject in the case of such vehicles to the provisions of the Road Traffic Acts), or in boats, waiting rooms, piers, bus stations, garages, or in any place whatever, in transit, or on shore, and whether or not such loss of life, injury damage, loss or delay is due to unseaworthiness, or unfitness of the ships, and/or ferryboats or vehicles, or their appurtenances at or after the commencement of the voyage, acts, neglects, errors in judgment, or defaults of master mariners engineers, or others of the crew of the ships, or of agents, stevedores, pier masters, boatmen, drivers, conductors or other servants of theirs connected with the service in any way whatsoever, it being distinctly agreed to and understood that passengers, their luggage, goods and property are carried at passengers' own risk, and they are recommended to insure against anything of this kind. A free allowance of 150 lbs. of personal luggage is made to passengers on the Company's ships. In the Company's vehicles a free allowance of 28 lbs. of personal luggage is made to passengers. All beyond that quantity will only be taken by special arrangement with the Company, their agents or the clerk of the ship. Dogs and cycles are carried entirely at their owner's risk, both as to any injury or damage whatever done to themselves or any injury or damage they may do to anyone or anything in the way. All dogs must be furnished with efficient collars, chains and muzzles. In cases of transhipment, owners require to see to their dogs and cycles themselves.

All tickets (including through tickets and interchangeable tickets) are issued subject to the conditions and regulations referred to in the timetables, bills and notices of the companies or owners on whose railways, ships, vehicles, ferries or aeroplanes they are available, and the contract of each company and the liability thereof is limited to its own railways, ships, ferries, vehicles or aeroplanes. In cases also in which through tickets are issued for a journey which does not commence on any of the Company's services they are issued by the Company as agents for and on behalf of the companies or owners on whose railways, ships, vehicles, ferries or aeroplanes they are available, and when the journey is not continuous through tickets and/or interchangeable tickets do not include the cost of transfer between railway termini in towns or between railway stations, vehicles, ferries, ships and air stations.
